Ne Fort
Sidmouth
23. Dec. 35

Dearest Renée & Joan

Many [illegible] letter.
More long mans, I thought, had sent cheque ages ago — what of this? Missives as usual! It is a myth.
~~Don't~~ Watch Jane Wally's main verbs & don't let Peter chuck the porridge about.
I was overjoyed at Wales
winning — what a marvellous match — it must have been.
What a this silks' cards —
I'm sure have cr the Inges whistle for them — I'm glad we can't on Friday.
We think will be alright for walking on the shore. Guess I'm than make it a longish visit now. Don't like the look of things at all — Eden as the Foreign Min — bad.
It sunny here anyway & clear.
Love & Greetings to Brian & Mummy &
Merry Christmas
Much love & kind